COURSES AVAILABLE THIS MONTH:

- CELL PHONE INVESTIGATIONS -- NEW

NEW CELL PHONE INVESTIGATIONS

Criminals' heavy reliance on cell phones makes it crucial for police officers to learn common cell phone terminology and understand the data they receive from cell phone companies. Information will be presented during this course on the benefits of using these data records, the limitations of the records, and the best software to map the records. This two-day training course will provide officers with a comprehensive approach to exploiting cellular telephones.
