Incidents

Fatal Crash Investigation – On October 12 at 8:01AM, investigators with the Crash Investigation Unit responded to the area of Hoadly Rd and Galveston Ct in Manassas (20112) to investigate a crash. The investigation revealed that the driver of a 2003 Toyota Camry was attempting to make a left turn on a yellow light from northbound Hoadly Rd onto Galveston Ct when the vehicle crossed paths with a 2005 Subaru Forester that was traveling southbound on Hoadly Rd through the intersection, also with a yellow light. The Camry was occupied by the driver and three children. All occupants were transported to area hospitals for treatment. The driver of the Camry reported minor injuries. All three children were seated in the rear of the vehicle. Two of the children, a 6-year-old girl and a 2-year-old girl, were secured in a child restraint and sustained minor injuries. The third child, a 7-year-old girl, was seated in a booster seat in between the two other children and sustained serious injuries. On October 21, investigators were notified that the 7-year-old girl died as a result of her injuries sustained in the crash. The driver of the Forester was not injured. Due to a change in Virginia law, the identity of the juvenile is not being disclosed. After consultation with the Commonwealth Attorney's Office, no charges will be sought in this crash.
