Arrests

Malicious Wounding | Hit and Run - On December 19 at 6:03AM, officers responded to the 16900 block of Old Stage Rd. in Dumfries (22025) to investigate a hit and run. Upon arrival, officers located a 32-year-old man, suffering from injuries sustained during the vehicle crash. The investigation revealed that while in the above area, the victim observed a physical altercation between a female acquaintance and an unknown man, later identified as the accused. The victim then picked up the female acquaintance in his vehicle and as they left, the accused followed them to the above area where he struck the victim's vehicle with his vehicle twice. Following a brief verbal altercation, the accused, took the victim’s phone, and left with the female acquaintance in the striking vehicle. The victim reported non-life threatening injuries. While investigating, officers located the striking vehicle a short distance away and determined both the vehicle and the license plates were previously reported stolen from separate jurisdictions. Later that day, officers received information on the location of the female acquaintance and while investigating, she falsely identified herself to officers and was later determined to be actively wanted out of another jurisdiction. Following the investigation, the female acquaintance, identified as Jessica Emily AYALA, was arrested. A short time later, the accused, identified as Jeffrey Antonio TURCIOS, was also located and taken into custody without incident.

Arrested on December 19: [No Photos Available]
Jeffrey Antonio TURCIOS, 23, of no fixed address
Charge with 1 count of malicious wounding, 2 counts of hit & run, and 1 count of petit larceny
Court Date: Pending | Bond: Unavailable

Jessica Emily AYALA, 20, of 14270 Prinedale Dr. in Woodbridge
Charged with and providing a false identity to law enforcement
Court Date: Pending | Status: Released on a court summons
