DAILY INCIDENT REPORT

December 6, 2022

Incidents

Fatal Crash Investigation – On December 5 at 5:58AM, investigators with the Crash Investigation Unit responded to the area of Richmond Hwy near Russell Rd in Quantico (22134) to investigate a crash involving a pedestrian. Multiple callers contacted the Public Safety Communications Center to report a man walking in the roadway in the above area. Prior to officers arriving at the location, the man had been struck by a vehicle. The investigation revealed the pedestrian, later identified as a 36-year-old man, was walking in the northbound lanes of Richmond Hwy near Russell Rd. At one point, the man continued walking north in the southbound lanes where he was then struck by the driver of a 2010 BMW 5 series traveling south on Richmond Hwy. The pedestrian was then hit by a second unknown vehicle as he laid in the roadway. The driver of the second vehicle continued southbound on Richmond Hwy and did not stop. It is unknown if the driver of the second vehicle was aware they struck the man. The driver of the BMW remained on scene at of the crash and was uninjured. Rescue personnel responded and pronounced the pedestrian dead at the scene. Neither speed nor impairment appear to be factors in the collision on the part of the BMW driver. At the time of the crash, the deceased was wearing dark-colored clothing and walking in the roadway outside of a crosswalk. The identity of the deceased will be released pending notification of a next-of-kin. Investigators with the Crash Investigation Unit are asking anyone who may have witnessed this crash to contact police and are urging anyone who believe they may have been the driver of the second vehicle to come forward. The investigation continues.

Identified:
The driver of the 2010 BMW 5 series was identified as a 17-year-old female juvenile of Triangle

Burglary While Armed – On December 5 at 9:38PM, officers responded to a residence located in the 14400 block of Sedona Dr in Gainesville (20155) to investigate a home invasion. The investigation revealed a confrontation occurred between a male resident of the home and two known individuals. The altercation escalated physically before moving inside the home where a female resident attempted to intervene and was also assaulted. At one point, three men entered the home and began searching the residence. One of the men was reportedly armed with a handgun. The suspects took a drug paraphernalia, an undisclosed amount of money, clothing items, and gaming equipment before fleeing the home. Minor injuries were reported. A police K-9 and Fairfax County police helicopter searched the area for the suspects who were not located. The intruders were only described as three black males wearing all dark-colored clothing and ski-style masks. This incident does not appear to be random. The investigation continues.

Attempted Armed Robbery – On December 4 at 11:29PM, officers responded to the area of Sudley Rd and Irongate Way in Manassas (20109) to investigate an attempted robbery. The investigation revealed the victim, a 41-year-old man, was walking in the above area when he was approached by an unknown man who displayed a large knife and demanded money. The victim did not have money to provide, and the suspect fled on foot. No physical contact was made between the two parties and no property was taken. The suspect was only described as a white male, possibly Hispanic, in his early 20’s with short black hair and thin build.
