

Historic Community of Change

Prince William County has many different layers to its history, and many individuals have shaped the County's complex past. Their contributions have also made Prince William the diverse and inclusive community we are today.

Thank you for joining us today at the 8th Annual Prince William/Manassas History Symposium to learn about some of the early pioneers in County history and how we still see their impact on modern Prince William County.

PRINCE WILLIAM
Historic Preservation

www.pwcgov.org/history
historicpreservation@pwcgov.org
www.facebook.com/pwhistoric
Twitter: @PWHPF
Instagram: PWC History

HISTORIC COMMUNITY OF CHANGE

8TH ANNUAL PRINCE WILLIAM/
MANASSAS HISTORY SYMPOSIUM

MARCH 25, 2023

Old Manassas Courthouse

Thank you for joining us today for the:

THE EIGHTH ANNUAL PRINCE WILLIAM – MANASSAS HISTORY SYMPOSIUM

SATURDAY, MARCH 25, 2023

Thank you to our generous supporters:

Prince William Historic Preservation
Foundation

9:00 Opening remarks:
Mark Wolfe, Manassas City Council

9:30am The Community of Thoroughfare
Danae Peckler, Dovetail Cultural Resources

10:30am I Cannot Tell A Lie: Parson Mason Locke Weems and the Truth about the Cherry Tree and Weems other Washington Anecdotes
Jim Bish, Historic Prince William

11:30am Lunch Break
(Dining options are located in downtown Manassas)

1:30 Shaped by Faith and Duty:
George Round in Manassas
Lisa Sievel-Otten, City of Manassas

2:30pm The Life & Landscape of Prince William's James Robinson
Jim Bailey, Manassas National Battlefield Park

3:30pm Railroads of Prince William County
Nate McDonald, Prince William County
Office of Historic Preservation

In memory of Don Wilson, a respected Librarian who dedicated over 40 years serving the Prince William County community at the Ruth E. Lloyd Information Center (RELIC)

Don't forget to purchase your copy of the fifth issue of the Journal of Prince William History, for the special one day price of $5.00.