CHARLES TOWN OPERA HOUSE PRESENTS:

The Go-Go Girls of Laurelton Oaks

Charles Town, WV

Cost: $125 pp

Best friends Libby Ruth, Deedra, Monette and Charlie return to their beloved Laurelton Oaks, but this time it's not for a stampede of weddings. Thanks to Deedra's purchase of the stately venue, together they ingeniously re-imagine the business as 'Occasionally Yours', an events center for all kinds of fresh, new celebratory gatherings. With this much creative energy, what could possibly go wrong? Basically, almost everything, what with Monette careening through a comic minefield of a divorce, Charlie struggling to survive her late-arriving mid-life crisis, Libby Ruth desperately trying to find personal fulfillment outside of her recently emptied nest and Deedra doing her dead-level best to fend off the eagle eye and control issues of one Sedalia Ellicott, the former owner, who refuses to relinquish the reins and exit gracefully. In the course of one year, they joyfully throw themselves into hosting retirement parties, baby showers, memorial services - where everything that can go awry does. They are even compelled to participate in, yes, a last-minute surprise wedding. As these women endure these laugh-out-loud adventures in hospitality, they grow closer than ever, and will tickle your funny bone and definitely capture your heart. Lunch prior to the show is at Applebee's [With reservation, provide your choice of Bourbon Street Steak or Chicken & Shrimp]. We will depart Woodbridge at 10:00 a.m. and Manassas at 10:45 a.m. Return time is approximately 6:30 p.m. Note: Tour limited to 38 persons,

Broadway. It takes audience participation to new heights calling on the audience to determine the ending of the mystery by choosing the identity of the murderer. This Tony award-winning tale is presented as a show-within-a-show, 'first night performance by the Music Hall Royale' – a delightfully loony troupe of Victorian actors. We will depart Manassas at 9:15 a.m. and Woodbridge at 10:00 a.m. Return time is approximately 9:00 p.m. with a fast-food rest stop enroute.

Day Two Friday April 19:

Rise and Shine and prepare for breakfast followed by a full day of sightseeing. Today we are off to Boone Plantation that was founded in 1681 when Englishman Major John Boone came to Charleston and established a lucrative plantation with a gracious home on the banks of Wampacheone Creek. The home is famed for its  $\frac{3}{4}$  mile of moss draped Avenue of Oaks a la "Gone With The Wind" time. There is so much to see and we have requested a private guide to help us not to miss anything including a hot buffet private lunch for our group only. Also included is a tractor ride, and private Gullah performance. We are now headed for downtown Charleston to have free time at the famous Charleston City Market. Established in the 1790s, the market stretches for four city blocks from the architecturally-significant Market Hall, which faces Meeting Street, through a continuous series of one-story market sheds, the last of which terminates at East Bay Street. This evening we are in for a special treat as you board the Spirit of Carolina Riverboat to enjoy four course dinner, made to order from local seasonal ingredients. As you dine, the Spirit of Carolina will cruise through the beautiful Charleston Harbor, past Fort Sumter, along the Battery and beneath the Ravenel Bridge. Day Three Saturday April 20:

Breakfast. This morning we will meet our step-on guide for a tour of historic Charleston. We will make an afternoon lunch break on your own at McDonald's. This afternoon enjoy the Lowcountry's ultimate garden experience on 66 acres of romantic-style gardens, including plants and trees that have been growing on the property since the 1840s. Welcome to Magnolia Plantation that was once a working rice plantation. No visit can be complete without an understanding of the families who have lived on the "Street"—first as enslaved workers, and then as paid garden staff all throughout Magnolia's 350-year history. The cabins featured on our From Slavery to Freedom tour have been preserved and restored, each representing a time period significant to both African-American and Lowcountry history. This tour honors and remembers the men, women, and children who designed, planted, and worked in the gardens, built and maintained the bridges, and labored in the house and the rice fields. We will also enjoy the Nature Train that circumnavigates Magnolia's 450 acres of wetlands, forests, marsh, and swamp. While riding you'll learn about the native plants and animals of the Lowcountry, as well as the history of rice cultivation and phosphate mining at Magnolia. Your guide will point out birds, alligators, turtles, and more. Then, join us for a special walking tour of Magnolia's beautiful gardens! Along the way we will be introduced to the vistas and scenery that have made this garden a must-see in Charleston for over 150 years. AMERICAN MUSIC THEATRE

A SALUTE TO CONWAY TWITTY
& LORETTA LYNN

Lancaster, Pennsylvania

Cost: $140 pp

For those who love country music, this is a "Must See Production." There's a moment at the beginning of any Twitty & Lynn show that affords country music fans the chance to look back in time. Tre Twitty, the grandson of Conway Twitty, and Tayla Lynn, the granddaughter of Loretta Lynn, are not impersonators. Rather, they are onstage celebrating country music, the lost art of duet singing, and two beloved country icons. In 2022 they made their debut on the world-famous Grand Ole Opry, singing "Louisiana Woman, Mississippi Man" on the very same circle of wood where Conway and Loretta once stood. The duo credits their show's popularity to the timeless songs of Conway and Loretta – duets like "After the Fire Is Gone" and "You're the Reason Our Kids Are Ugly," along with Conway and Loretta solo hits like "Hello, Darlin'" and "Coal Miner's Daughter." Prior to the performance we will enjoy a fabulous buffet at Miller's Restaurant. We will depart Manassas at 8:45 a.m. and Woodbridge at 9:30 a.m. Return time is approximately 8:45 p.m.

Day 4 Monday May 27

Enjoy an early breakfast from 6:30 a.m. to 8:00 a.m. We are scheduled to be aboard our coach by 8:00 a.m. Our first stop is the Big Sandy Museum where on display are the Hatfield-McCoy Relics. The Big Sandy Heritage Museum serves two audiences: Hatfield McCoy Feud enthusiasts, and those who wish to learn more about Pike County/Appalachian culture. While the Hatfield McCoy exhibits are the most popular, the Appalachian culture exhibits, which include exhibits on Daniel Boone, President Garfield, the coal and railroad industry, and the "8th Wonder of the World" Pikeville Cut-Thru, a marvel of man-conquers-earth engineering, are also quite popular. The Hatfield McCoy Feud exhibit includes life-size wax mannequins of the two clan leaders, "Devil Anse" Hatfield and Randolph McCoy. These mannequins were custom-made in Philadelphia, and include authentic reproductions of the firearms they would have used during the feud era. Framed paintings of the two men by the late Bert Diamond, a Pikeville resident, are another museum display that you won't see anywhere else. Printed articles on the feud are also on display, such as local newspaper cartoons depicting the two clans as hillbillies wallowing with pigs, and as well as other articles that contributed to the sensationalism of the feud. Next on our agenda is the Pike County Historic Court House just next door. Here members of the Hatfield family were tried found guilty of the murders of Tolbert, Randolph, Jr., Pharmed, Alifair, and Calvin McCoy. In September 1889, the bloody results of the feud brought many of the participants into the courthouse in Pikeville. Here, eight members of the Hatfield group were convicted of murder and sentenced to life in prison. These legal proceedings effectively moved the feud from the hills and hollers into the judicial system and newspapers. From here we travel to the Pikeville Cut-Through Project, an astonishing engineering wonder that has been called "the eighth wonder of the world" by The New York Times. Its purpose was to relieve the barrage of flooding that the City of Pikeville experienced each year. The Cut-Through Project also provided the City of Pikeville with more room for development, due to the relocation of the Levisa Fork of the Big Sandy River away from downtown Pikeville, and relieved the city of congestion caused by the railroad and the three major highways that passed through it. Group photo at the Cut. We will then enjoy early catered Italian lunch at- The Pikeville Event Center featuring baked spaghetti, baked lasagna, salad, bread stick, desert and drinks catered at the event space. By 12:15 p.m. we will depart for home.
