

AFFORDABLE DWELLING UNIT ORDINANCE

Public Meetings

The county is drafting an Affordable Dwelling Unit Ordinance that would help people with incomes at or below the area median income live in the county while maintaining a basic lifestyle and meeting basic living needs. Two public meetings are scheduled for those interested in learning more and providing input.

In-person: Wednesday, April 3 • 6 - 8 p.m.

Beacon Hall - George Mason University

Virtual: Thursday, April 4 • 6 - 8 p.m.

Scan the QR code for meeting details, to learn more about the ordinance or provide your input.

