Arrests

Murder Investigation – On April 16 at 4:29PM, officers responded to the Red Roof Inn located at 17113 Dumfries Rd. in Dumfries (22026) to investigate a death. Upon arriving, officers were informed by fire and rescue personnel that the victim, a 2-year-old girl, was dead. The preliminary investigation revealed there were no immediate signs of trauma or medical concerns. The child was in the care of her parents, later identified as the accused, leading up to the death. Also inside the hotel room at the time was a second child, under the age of 6, who was determined to be unharmed and was released to the custody of known parties. An unsecured firearm was also located inside the hotel room. The body was transported to the Medical Examiner's Office for an autopsy to determine the cause of death. On April 29, detectives received the toxicology exam results, which indicated the child had fentanyl in her heart blood. Further investigation revealed that while the mother contacted emergency services, the father removed items from the hotel room before police and emergency services arrived at the hotel. Following the joint investigation with Child Protective Services and after consultation with the Commonwealth Attorney's Office, detectives obtained arrest warrants for the accused, identified as William Nathaniel FULLER and Markita Ayanna WILLIAMS. On May 1, detectives and members of the U.S. Marshals Fugitive Task Force located both of the accused in the Dumfries area, where they were arrested without incident.
