Felony Animal Cruelty Investigation – On August 25 at 10:49AM, Animal Control responded to the Battlefield Animal Clinic located at 8139 Sudley Rd in Manassas (20109) to investigate an animal cruelty case. The investigation revealed clinic staff had arrived at the facility around 6:00AM that morning to discover a dog inside a cage at the side of the building. The dog was described as an adult tan & white colored Pitbull/Husky-mix that was severely emaciated and in poor health. Staff at the clinic provided immediate care for the dog until Animal Control arrived. The animal was then transported to the PWC Animal Services Center where the dog was humanly euthanized due to its suffering and poor quality of life. The remains have been submitted for necropsy and further examination. While investigating the incident, nearby surveillance captured a light-colored sedan, possibly a Lexus, with Maryland tags pull into an adjacent parking lot at approximately 4:18AM where the driver is then seen removing the cage and abandoning the dog before immediately leaving. The driver was described as a male, unknown age or race, wearing a baseball hat, white shirt tank top with a dark-colored shirt draped on his shoulders.
