Director's Report

- The Human Rights Office's contract with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) will conclude on September 30, 2025. To date, the office has successfully closed 27 employment cases, and we are confident that the remaining 7 will be resolved before the contract ends.
- The Deputy CXO, Michelle Attreed, will be leaving the organization effective August 30th. Starting August 9th, David Sinclair, Director, Office of Management and Budget, will be the new Acting Deputy CXO for Prince William County.
- The office's outreach efforts will continue throughout the summer. Staff will be participating in the African American Festival on August 3rd, as well as the PWCPS Back to School Community Event.
- The office is currently in the planning stages with the EEOC and Rabi Shmuel Perlstein with Chabad of Greater Gainesville & Manassas for an event, which will be similar to the Anti-Semitism Dialogue we previously held. Additionally, the office will be participating in the Re-Entry event in collaboration with the PWC Detention Center.

COMMISSIONER'S TIME

Victoria Staubly – Commissioner Staubly would like to acknowledge that July is Disability Pride Month and recommends preparing a resolution next year to formally recognize and celebrate this observance. Also, Commissioner Staubly attended the Dale City 4th of July Parade and the Juneteenth event and had a great time.

Padreus Pratter – Nothing to report.

Benjamin Baldwin – Commissioner Baldwin enjoyed the Dale City 4th of July Parade.

Victor Ginoba – Commissioner Ginoba acknowledged that July 25th is observed as National Hire a Veteran Day. Additionally, the Prince William County Fair will be held from August 8th to 16th, and all veterans and active-duty military personnel will receive free admission.

William Johnston — Commissioner Johnston wished Vice Chair BruMar a Happy Birthday.

Evelyn BruMar – Virginia's ban on sexual orientation change efforts, including talk therapy for LGBT-identified minors, or known as gay conversion therapy, has been struck down. Commissioner BruMar will celebrate her 50th birthday with a fundraising event at the Old Bust Head Brewing Company. All proceeds will be directed toward the remodeling of the CASA BruMar Center.

Curtis Porter – Starting in September, our meetings will be held in Powell's Creek. Please note that there will be no meeting in August.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:50 pm.
