Incidents

Fatal Crash Investigation – On October 15 at 5:45AM, officers responded to the area of James Madison Hwy near Logmill Rd in Haymarket (20169) to investigate a crash. The investigation revealed the driver of a 2012 Freightliner semi-truck, identified as a 53-year-old man, was making a left turn from a private driveway onto James Madison Hwy, attempting to proceed southbound. At the time the truck driver was initiating the turn, traffic was clear in both directions. During the turn, the driver of a Mazda CX5, identified as a 55-year-old man, was traveling northbound approaching the truck. The driver of the truck attempted to make audible and visual signals to warn the oncoming driver by sounding the truck's horn and flashing the headlights. At this time, it appears the driver the Mazda made no attempt to slow or stop their vehicle before colliding with the trailer portion of the truck. The driver of the Mazda died at the scene. The driver of the truck was uninjured. Investigators are continuing to look into factors which may have contributed to the collision. Crash investigators are asking anyone who may have witnessed this crash to contact police.
