

Talking to the Author

Bookmark Contest

January 2–March 12

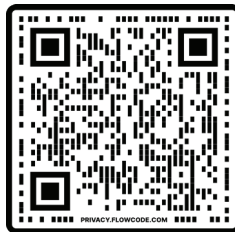

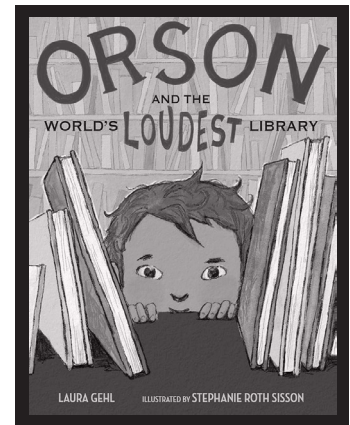

Design a bookmark around the theme:
The Loudest Library

The bookmark contest form is available at pwcva.gov/library, at Chinn Park ASC Library (13083 Chinn Park Dr., Woodbridge, VA 22192), and Montclair Library. The bookmarks of the first-place winners (one for each grade) and the grand prize winner's bookmark will be printed and available at the library in early summer.

The grand prize winner will also receive an autographed copy of "Orson and the World's Loudest Library" by local author Laura Gehl. Prizes will be awarded at the Talking to the Author presentation at Montclair Library on Saturday, April 11, at 2:00 p.m., with special guest Laura Gehl.

Competition Rules:

1. Design a bookmark using the block below.
2. Complete the entry form on the back.
3. Children must be in grades K–5.
4. Each child may submit only one design.
5. Make a copy of your bookmark. Entries will not be returned.
6. The deadline for entries is Wednesday, March 12, 5:00 p.m.
7. Winning bookmarks will be displayed at pwcva.gov/library and on PWPL's social media.
8. Please do not cut out the bookmark. Turn in the entire sheet of paper.
9. All art becomes the property of Prince William Public Libraries.
