Incidents

Armed Robbery | Reckless Handling of a Firearm – On December 20 at 4:26PM, officers responded to Dumfries Shopping Center located in the 18000 block of Dumfries Shopping Plz in Dumfries (22026) to investigate a robbery. The investigation revealed the victim, a 21-year-old man, arranged to sell clothing items through the “Offer Up” app to an unknown party at the above shopping center. Once in the area, the victim met with two men accompanied by two women. During the encounter, one of the men reached into the victim’s vehicle and grabbed the clothing items from the victim. The victim drove off, at which point one of the suspects fired a handgun towards the victim’s vehicle which penetrated through the back glass and struck the vehicle’s front console. No injuries or other property damage were reported. The two suspects were described as black males, both in their late teens to early 20s and approximately 6’0”.

Reckless Handling of a Firearm – On December 21 at 6:44PM, officers responded to the area of Botsford Rd and Forrester Ln in Manassas (20109) to investigate a shots fired call. The investigation revealed the victims, a 20-year-old man and a 25-year-old man, were sitting in a vehicle in the above area when another vehicle pulled up to theirs where an occupant inside began firing towards them. All parties dispersed prior to officers arriving on the scene. The two victims contacted police later in the evening to report the incident. The victim’s vehicle and a home in the area were damaged by gunfire. Shell casings were also found on the roadway. No injuries or other property damage were reported. This incident does not appear to be random.
