

SECONDS MATTER, DECISIONS COUNT

WHEN: JANUARY 26 & 27 • 800-1200

WHERE: FAIRFAX COUNTY FIRE STATION 402 • 400 CENTER ST S - VIENNA, VA

CLASS: SIZE - UP AND MORE

This 4-hour course is being delivered by Deputy Chief Walter Lewis of the Orlando International Airport Fire & Rescue. He recently retired as an Assistant Chief from the Orlando Fire Department after 29 years of service. Size-Up and More is focused on improving the critical first actions of the first-arriving officer.

From information gathered prior to arrival to the initial on-scene report, officers must deliver a clear, accurate size-up in a highly time-compressed environment. This course gives students the opportunity to practice size-ups across a variety of structures and emergency scenarios, with focused teaching points for each. Emphasis is placed on quick decision-making, effective communication, and command presence. The class also reinforces the importance of consistent, standardized language across all agency personnel to improve clarity, coordination, and fireground efficiency.
