Attempted Malicious Wounding [Previously Released] – On January 21 at 5:57PM, officers responded to the area of Ashton Ave and Crestwood Dr in Manassas (20109) to investigate a hit & run. The investigation revealed the victim, a 40-year-old man, was stopped at a traffic light at Sudley Rd and Lomond Dr when his vehicle was struck from behind by another vehicle, later determined to be driven by the accused. After being struck, the other vehicle then drove around the victim's vehicle and proceeded through a red light at the intersection. The victim followed the striking vehicle to the area of Ashton Ave and Crestwood Dr where the victim exited his vehicle to exchange information for the crash. During the encounter, the accused physically struck the victim with his vehicle before running on foot from the scene. A dog inside the suspect vehicle was able to get out and attempted to follow the accused as he ran from the scene. Officers arrived on scene and attempted to contain the dog which was running in the roadway and was believed to have been struck by passing vehicles before running off. The accused and dog were not located, and the victim reported minor injuries. Officers checked the suspect vehicle, locating several empty beer cans and an ID identifying the accused. Following the investigation, officers obtained arrest warrants for the accused, identified as Jose Marvin MARTINEZ. Attempts to locate the accused were unsuccessful.
