DAILY INCIDENT REPORT

November 5, 2026

Incidents

Commercial Burglary- On November 4, officers responded to the Merit School of Prince William, located at 14308 Spriggs Rd in Woodbridge (22193) to investigate a reported burglary. The investigation revealed on November 3 at approximately 9:03PM, an unknown man damaged a chain link fence and entered the school. While inside the building the suspect broke a window, took food items and damaged a copier, before leaving the area. The suspect was described as a white male, aged 18-20, wearing a light-colored t-shirt, black pants and a black beanie hat.

Arrests

Sexual Assault Investigation- On November 4, detectives concluded an investigation into sexual assaults that reportedly occurred between the head coach of the girls' basketball team at Gar-Field High School, and a female juvenile player with whom he coached on the team. The investigation revealed in June 2026, the victim, a 15-year-old female juvenile, was picked up from her residence by her basketball coach, identified as the accused. During the encounter, the accused drove the victim to an undisclosed location in Prince William County where he then sexually assaulted her, before driving her back to her residence. The victim additionally disclosed a subsequent incident where the accused inappropriately touched her while giving her a ride home. None of the reported assaults were determined to have occurred on school grounds. Following the investigation, the accused, identified as Demetrius Montrell FELDER, was arrested. The accused is also an assistant teacher at Beville Middle School. Detectives are asking anyone who has information regarding this investigation to contact police.

Arrested on November 4:
Demetrius Montrell FELDER, 47, of Woodbridge
Charged with five counts of indecent liberties by a custodian
Court date: Pending | Status: Held WITHOUT Bond
