Submit documents (by mail or in person) to:

Prince William County Clerk of Circuit Court
9311 Lee Avenue
Civil Division – Room 314
Manassas, VA 20110

Please direct all questions to: circuitcourt@pwcgov.org or 703-792-6029.

Please note:

- The Civil Celebrant is authorized to perform the ceremony only AFTER the court order has been entered by the Judge and the $500.00 bond has been paid and processed by the court.
- A certified copy of the signed order will be mailed to the petitioner to notify of approval or denial of the petition. Upon approval, the civil celebrant should submit their Bond to the Clerk's Office.

The Bond will be refunded once the Civil Celebrant's portion of the marriage license has been completed and put to record in the Clerk's Office. Please allow 30 days for the refund of the bond. If the marriage license was obtained in Prince William County, verification can be performed by our staff in Room 305. If the license was obtained in a different Circuit Court you will need to file the original license with that court and get a certified copy to submit to Prince William County to request a refund of your Bond (in Room 306).

General Information:

- A marriage license is good anywhere within the Commonwealth of Virginia;
- A marriage license is good for 60 days. A new license is required after 60 days in order to have a legal marriage;
- The marriage celebrant is the one responsible for returning the completed marriage license to the appropriate Clerk's office within 5 days of performing the ceremony.
