Chair Curtis Porter called the meeting to order at 7:32 pm.

Citizens Time

- Heidi BruMar addressed the commission to commend new commissioners and the Human Rights work.

Old Business

- Minutes of January 9, 2020, were approved with one change of adding “unanimously” to “The commission voted unanimously to record closed session except for the deliberation.” (Holly-moved/Johnston-seconded).

New Business

- The election for Vice Chair was moved to the March meeting.
- The after action report on the Universal Human Rights Day program included suggestions on the diversity of the recipients and changes to the selection process of recipients.
- The Chair asked commissioners to consider recommendations to staff and to create additional committees for the commission.

Committee Reports

Student Leadership Council

- The next meeting will be on Fair Housing and will discuss the final project with the students. Students will be presenting to the commission on civil rights issues they are passionate about.
• March meeting will have EEOC and their graduation ceremony.

Unity in the Community

• The Chair will send out details on Unity in the Community for commissioners’ participation in the future.

Director’s Report

• Delegate Roem invited the Human Rights Commission to receive an award for the work that is done by the commission. A resolution was passed by the House and Senate recognizing the Human Rights Commission.
• The Chair, Director and Manager have met with 6 out of 8 Board of County Supervisors to inform them of the work that is done by the Commission and office and to find common ground on issues in the community.
• Census promotion events kicked off in February and will continue through April.
• Discussed EEO merger with the Human Rights Office.

CLOSED SESSION

• Discussed matters Pursuant to Virginia Code Section 2.2-3711.A.4/7

COMMISSIONER’S TIME

Commissioners welcomed each other. They discussed their non-profit organizations and work in the community to include child sexual abuse, LGBTQ+, United Nations Association and Model United Nations. They discussed other community issues and made the following announcements:

• There is a fundraiser to start a children’s advocacy center for victims of child abuse in PWC. This event will be held on April 19 at the Bristow Manor Golf Club from 5:00 pm to 8:00 pm. For more information search Stomp Out the Silence on Facebook.
• There is an LGBTQ+ Symposium on April 25 hosted by Casa BruMar Foundation.

The meeting adjourned at 8:48 pm.
