Words Everywhere

How can you share new words with your child?

Learn sign language! Teaching your baby simple signs like “milk” or “more” can help develop vocabulary even before they talk.

Name body parts! It’s a great game to play when taking a bath or changing clothes.

Put on a puppet show! Telling a story with puppets or stuffed animals gives you the opportunity to share new words.