Shannon Jaenicke, Secretary

Recommendations for Grants Panel – FY 21-22

These individuals will serve a one- year term:

Nancy Kenny

Nancy served in the role as the Arts Admin Support to the Arts Council and DPRT from 2019-2020. She oversaw the grant administration and funding, arts membership, preparation of monthly council meetings, assisted the Council Board of bylaws and interpretation, promoted art related events and performances, and maintained all records, dues, and reports. She will an arts advocate and has a true appreciation for the arts.

These individuals will serve a two-year term:

Lisa Zargapur

Lisa has been involved in the arts since she was a student here in Prince William County. She participated in youth orchestra programs as a student (Prince William Youth Symphony), taught private lessons, worked with Little Hands (music camp) when they did a summer camp at the Hylton Center, and was a founding member of the Old Bridge Chamber Orchestra. She feels the fine and performing arts is part of a vibrant community and reflects our humanity and should continue to provide opportunities for our citizens and encourage participation and appreciation of the arts.

Cheryl Sagers

Cheryl is a retired art teacher in Prince William County. She has taught Elementary, Middle and High School Art and Special Ed art in New York, Michigan and Virginia. Her granddaughters attended ballet lesson in the area and she has enjoyed taking them to several dance productions at Hylton Performing Art Center. Before the COVID crisis she attended several performances at the Center. Prince William County is rich in its arts culture. Cheryl has been on the Art Grant Panel before for a few years and would enjoy returning and helping review organization's applications for their needed grant money. After this shut down, she is sure there will be programs that will need help. Cheryl enjoys living in this county and serving the community. She will continue to substitute teach when the schools open. She is also a foster mom for a large dog rescue organization and a member of a local painting organization.

Maura Scanlon

Maura has extensive work experience in the field of Marketing, Communications, Public Relations and art that started in 1997 . Of recent, she worked as the Director of Communications for the Institute for Contemporary Art at VCU. She was responsible for producing, editing, and oversaw the distribution of press releases, member's magazine, advertisements, e-news, blog content, promotional videos, social media, and institutional photography. She developed the marketing and communication strategies; collaborated with classes in the School of Business; recruited and supervised the Marketing Assistant, Graphics Designer and student workers.
